At 9 a. m. the Wyoming Artillerists will fire a salute of 13 guns from Forty Fort.

Exercises July 4th, 1878, at Wilkes-Barre.

Salute of 100 guns at sunrise by Battery of Wyoming Artillerists under direction of Captain Parker.

At 10 a. m., procession composed of Military, Grand Army of the Republic, Veteran Corps, Fire Departments, Civic and Benevolent Societies, Historical Tableaux, Trades and Mechanical Displays. The procession will consist of Chief Marshal Colonel Stanley Woodward, with one hundred mounted aids, and seven grand divisions, as follows:

1st Division—Military; Major General E. S. Osborne, Marshal.

2d Division—Grand Army of the Republic; Col. Harry A. Laycock, Marshal.

3d Division—Veteran Corps; Major Charles M. Conyngham, Marshal.

4th Division—Fire Departments; T. S. Hillard and Charles Law, Marshals.

5th Division—Civic and Benevolent Societies; Capt. James P. Dennis and Dr. O. F. Harvey, Marshals.

6th Division—Historical Tableaux; Geo. H. Parrish and James P. Dickson, Marshals.

7th Division—Trades and Mechanical Displays; Col. Wm. N. Monies and J. W. Patten, Marshals.

All organizations are expected to designate their own Assistant Marshals.

FORMATION OF PROCESSION.

To ensure good order, the following plan of organization will be strictly observed:

1st or Military Division will form on West River street, right resting on River street. Capt. Parker will place one gun of his battery in position to be fired as the signal of movement.

2d Division will form on West River street, immediately in rear of 1st Division.

3d Division will form on West River street, in the rear of 2d Division.

4th Division will form on South street, right resting on River street.

5th Division will form on Northampton street, right resting on River street.

6th Division will form on River street, right resting on South street.

(This formation will be massed between Market and South streets.)

7th Division will form on River street above Market, right resting on Market street.

At 11 o'clock a single gun will be fired, and the procession will move over the following route: Down River street to Academy (or Hanover) street, thence to Main street, up the same to Public Square, thence through East Market street to Washington street, up the same to Union street, through the same to Main street, thence down Main by countermarch to Ross street, through Ross to Franklin, up same to Union, through Union to River street, down River street to Wyoming Valley Hotel, where the parade will pass in review before their Excellencies the President of the United States and the Governor of Pennsylvania; and then dismiss.

All organizations will report directly to the proper Division Marshal, by whom their respective places in line will be designated.

The people of the city are respectfully requested to decorate their dwellings and places of business.

ASSEMBLE ON RIVER BANK OPPOSITE SOUTH STREET.
